

From Atlantic Cape Community College:

Lauryn Bianco – Lauryn received her associate degree in general studies in December. She held a perfect 4.0 grade point average. She is currently attending Rowan University, working towards her bachelor's degree in biological science. She plans to attend medical school and become a physician specializing in emergency medicine.

While at Atlantic Cape Community College, Lauryn was the Secretary for the Alpha Delta Mu Chapter. She coordinated movie nights for students, where the proceeds went to local charities. She also attended the Phi Theta Kappa Regional Leadership Program.

In addition, Lauryn volunteers as an arts and crafts teacher at a day camp for inner-city children, prepares food for the homeless at the local soup kitchen, collects food donations for her local food bank, and volunteers at the Medford Wild Life Refuge, where she attends to injured and sick animals.