

From Brookdale Community College:

Destinie Brannigan – Destinie will graduate later this month with her associate degree in business administration and fashion merchandising. She is an NJ STARS scholarship recipient. She plans to earn her master's degree and open a series of small boutiques.

As an active member of the Alpha Pi Theta Chapter, Destinie participated in numerous bakes sales, food and book drives, scholarship seminars, and fundraisers. Most notably, she was a member of the Chapter's 2008 Avon Breast Cancer Walk team. She also volunteered with the Commerce Bank Collection, collecting spare change using a piggy bank placed at her local Commerce Bank branch. The money raised will be donated to build a school for girls in Afghanistan. Due to the students' efforts, the school will be named after Brookdale Community College.

She also volunteered with Sunrise Assisting Living in Lincroft, running BINGO games for senior citizens.

In addition, Destinie is an active member of the College's Business and Fashion Societies.
