

From Raritan Valley Community College:

Elizabeth Christenson – Elizabeth will receive her associate degree in business administration and marketing later this month. She plans to earn her bachelor's and master's degrees and become a marketing manager for international children's orphanages.

As a member of the Alpha Epsilon Pi Chapter, Elizabeth donated bags of clothing for numerous clothing drives and participated in the clean up and landscaping of the College's Atrium.

Elizabeth is a founding member of the College Crew, a group of Raritan Valley Community College students with a vested interest in helping people in the community. As one example, Elizabeth led the group's efforts to raise money and install a garage door opener for an elderly lady during the winter months.

She also volunteers as a Sunday school teacher and a summer camp counselor.

In addition, Elizabeth is a Certified Red Cross Instructor and trains lifeguards and offers swimming lessons at her local YMCA.