

From Brookdale Community College:

Stephanie Cottino – Stephanie will graduate later this month with her associate degree in business. She plans to earn her bachelor's degree and pursue a career in business management.

Stephanie is Vice President of Finance for the Alpha Pi Theta Chapter. She participated in the American Cancer Society's Relay For Life Cancer Walk in Freehold to raise money for research. She participated in the Sandy Hook Beach Clean-up Program.

Stephanie also participated in the Chapter's 80's Dance, which raised money for AIDS awareness.

Stephanie is also the point person for the Chapter's service project, "The Three Cups of Tea College Project." The project was inspired by Greg Mortenson's book of the same name and the current Honors Study Topic The Global Dynamics of Power. Alpha Pi Theta partnered with the Brookdale Alumni Association to raise money to promote education for women in Afghanistan who were oppressed by the Taliban.
