

From Warren County Community College:

Kathleen Duke – Kathleen will receive her associate degree in elementary and secondary education later this month. She plans to earn her bachelor's degree and become a teacher.

As a member of the Alpha Upsilon Rho Chapter, Kathleen participated in the Chapter's International Storytelling for Children special event.

In her community, Kathleen devotes a great deal of time to her church, where she sings in the vocal choir and performs in the hand chime choir. She is also the musical leader for her church's vacation bible school.

In addition, Kathleen served on the student board for Mid Atlantic States Accreditation, offering a student's perspective of Warren County Community College.
