

From Salem Community College:

Kelly Harrison – Kelly is another one of our NJ STARS students here today. She will receive her associate degree in communications later this month. She plans to earn her bachelor's degree and become a publicist.

Kelly is President of the Alpha Pi Omega Chapter. She participated in the Adopt-A-Road community clean-up program, the American Cancer Society's Relay for Life fundraiser, and the Chapter's ongoing service project, the Better World book drive.

Kelly is a member of the Oakwood Summer Theater, a community summer theater group that produces plays for the community. In addition to landing the lead in "Arsenic and Old Lace" last summer, she has volunteered as a set decorator, costume designer and usher for the last nine years.

In addition, Kelly regularly donates blood to the American Red Cross.
