

From Raritan Valley Community College:

Samantha Rothlein – Samantha will receive her associate degree in business administration later this month. She is one of our NJ STARS scholarship recipients. She plans to earn her bachelor's degree and become a clothing and product purchaser in the retail industry.

Samantha is a member of the Alpha Beta Gamma Business Honor Society and Vice President of Scholarship for the Alpha Epsilon Pi Chapter. She has participated in the Relay for Life fundraiser. She organized a winter coat drive for Hunterdon Hispanos, volunteered with the Atrium Project to landscape the college's Atrium, and she runs the half dot com textbook project, where the Chapter sells textbooks online and donates the profits to the American Cancer Society.

Samantha is also highly involved with the Salvation Army. Every year, she donates toys to needy children. She also started a clothing and coat drive for the charity.
