

From Gloucester County College:

Barbara White – Barbara will receive her associate degree in accounting later this month. She plans to earn her bachelor's and master's degrees and work in the nonprofit sector.

As Vice President of Service for the Alpha Psi Pi Chapter, Barbara helped coordinate the New Jersey Leadership Seminar held last October.

Barbara volunteers with the Free Library of Philadelphia. She participated in the Library's first Book Festival and the Borrowers' Ball, an annual fundraiser.

Barbara also volunteers with the Cascade Beagle Rescue, where she transports dogs, keeps their information up-to-date on www.petfinder.com, checks references for potential dog adopters, and helps with special events in Pennsylvania and New Jersey.
